(54) Title: REWINDING MACHINE TO PRODUCE LOGS OF WEB MATERIAL AND RELATIVE WINDING METHOD

(57) Abstract: The machine comprises in combination: a winding cradle (7); an insertion member (29) to insert winding cores (A, A1) into said cradle; an ejector (39) to eject the logs formed from said cradle (7) causing them to roll on an unloading chute (41); a severing device (55, 53) to sever the web material after ejection of the log from said cradle. Disposed along the unloading chute is an aperture (43) elongated in a direction transverse to the direction in which the log is unloaded along said unloading chute. Moreover, the severing device (53, 55) includes a movable element (55) that is inserted into said aperture (43) to cause severing of the web material between the cradle and the finished log.

* Special categories of cited documents:

- A document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance
- E earlier document but published on or after the international filing date
- L document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)
- O document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means
- P document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

- T later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention
- X document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone
- Y document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art.
- G document member of the same patent family
